The musical score for measures 108-111 is written for piano. Measure 108 begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. The melody in the treble staff features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. Measures 109 and 110 continue this musical development with similar rhythmic patterns. Measure 111 concludes the section with a final chord in the treble staff and a descending line in the bass staff. The tempo marking 'Allegro (♩ = 125) accel.' is positioned above the staff, indicating a fast tempo with a quarter note equal to 125 beats per minute and an acceleration towards the end of the piece.

Musical score for 'The Rose Tree' (Meisterlied). The score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is in the upper staff, and the piano accompaniment is in the lower staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The score consists of two systems, each with two staves. The first system shows the beginning of the piece, and the second system shows the continuation of the melody and accompaniment. The piano part features a prominent bass line with many beamed eighth notes.
